Consider earnestly what I share with you.
May it take hold of you and deeply resonate inside your soul as it does in mine,
and your heart by God's Spirit will it animate.

You ask,

What so inspired you to share these quickened words?

Tell me whence did they originate?

See and read first Peter one, verse three to five;
you'll see just why these words so captivate.

This prayer of Peter I've made my own.

Will you not make it yours, ne hesitation?

“O blessed be God the Father of our Lord!”

Is this alone enough to start your meditation?

“Who according to His overflowing mercy.”

Come now, is this not worthy of your contemplation?

“Who according to His overflowing mercy.”

I say again, to make exaggeration,
then,

“Created us again into a living lively hope.”

Yes, we were dead in grave degeneration,
when Jesus came and gave new birth, complete regeneration! How?

“Through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.”

Because Christ rose from death's condemnation,
we have an “inheritance reserved in heaven”,
an “incorruptible and undefiled” reservation, so,

Do you see what Peter is saying? That when the trumpets sound with great acclimation,
like our Lord we will rise from the dead,
wrapped in glorious transformation.

Amen!
